

Differential invariants and foundations of differential geometry

Valentin Lychagin
University of Tromsø

An extension of the Erlangen program to differential geometry will be proposed. This will be done by use of differential invariant algebras for model homogeneous geometries. The more direct relation between geometrical theory of PDEs and geometrical structures will be discussed.