Linear connections along the tangent bundle projection

W. Sarlet

Department of Mathematical Physics and Astronomy, Ghent University
Krijgslaan 281, B–9000 Ghent, Belgium

Abstract

We give an intrinsic characterization of the concept of linear connection along the tangent bundle projection. One of the aims is to arrive at a coordinate free construction of an associated covariant derivative operator and to justify the concept of geodesics for such connections. Various related aspects will be discussed.